CHEROKEE STRIP.

Influx of Boomers Into the Indians' Reservation.

ARKANSAS CITY EXCITED OVER THE PROSPECTIVE SEIZURE.

The Government Strongly Denounced for the Unfair Manner in Which Oklahoma Was Opened—The Cherokees Will Lay Their Grievances Before President Harrison—Oklahoma News.

CHICAGO, April 26.—A special to the News from Diamond Bar Ranch, I. T., says:

The occupation of the Cherokee strip has begun along the whole line, and a much harder nut to crack than was the Oklahoma boom will be presented to the government. The excitement in Arkansas City over the prospective seizure of the strip is intense. The crowds of fugitives from the famine, thirst, frost and heat of Guthrie are swelling as each train on the almost wholly paralyzed railroad comes in.

The Government Denounced.

The fiercest resentment is breathed against the government for the outrageously unfair manner in which the country was thrown open. The whole Federal machinery from the president down to the last deputy marshal is passionately denounced. Six residents of Arkansas City went out on the strip Tuesday and staked claims. Some invaded the Chilocco Indian school reservation and were ordered off by the superintendent. They moved their stakes to a neighboring spot off the school land.

It may be believed that hundreds of the returning pilgrims are bearing northward with plans laid for location on the strip, and that many are now camping this side of Salt Fork, upon what they claim for their homes.

Trouble Bound to Come.

The soldiers patrolling this region under Capt. Jack Hayes have not yet returned from the southern border, but are expected in Camp Price, near Arkansas City, at any hour. It will be their duty doubtless to clear the strip, and turmoil is bound to ensue.

The people, however, who are back of this present excitement, are disposed to be law-abiding, but they will claim a redress for the wrongs they suffered in Oklahoma, and demand claims in the strip. It is not feared that they will offer an armed resistance. It seems, however, that something must be done to relieve the pressure of homeless throngs.

Meeting of the Cherokee Council.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., April 24.—The Cherokee council has held a meeting and selected a commission in the person of John Pappin to go to Washington and lay the Cherokee claims before President Harrison. They fear that the boomers will invade their territory, the Cherokee strip.

Pappin told a reporter that he thought that instructions would be issued to the troops to go slow in the matter of driving the boomers off the strip. This would be done, he thought, to compel the Cherokees to accept the $1.25 per acre now offered them for the 6,000,000 acres of land in the strip. Gen. Merritt has given the boomers three days to get off the Cherokee strip, and will undoubtedly drive them off.

Grab 'Way Up.

There is yet no difficulty in getting into the territory of Oklahoma, but it is more than doubtful when one is to get out. People are represented as vainly attempting to leave Guthrie by train. Sandwiches sell at twenty-five cents apiece. Any kind of a meal sells all the way from $1 to $5. The hotel tents are doing a big business, notwithstanding the prices they charge.

Prices of Lots Tumbling.

The prices of lots in the town, excepting a few very choice locations, have tumbled with as startling rapidity as they rose on Monday. One man offered three lots for $5 and could find no takers. Some lots could not be given away.

Street Fight at Oklahoma City.

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 26.—Three brothers named Williams, had a desperate fight on the streets Wednesday, with a party of Kansas town site speculators. Knives and pistols were freely used. All hands are under arrest.

Still They Come.

Each train brings from 100 to 500 new boomers. The class now coming is decidedly better than those who lagged around the border the month before the territory was opened.

Kingsfisher is having most difficulty just now. Being in a fertile valley it was the objective point for thousands who nighted from trains at Guthrie. The city is comparatively isolated, and although already filled with 7,000 men, it has just organized.

A Woman Raises a Row.

A young woman named Hotchkiss was arrested for murderously attacking the street committee. Her lot lay in the route of the proposed street. The woman made a violent resistance and smashed the tripod of the surveyor.

Has a Boom!

Oklahoma City is enjoying a most enormous boom. At first Guthrie took the lead, but Oklahoma City is a central location, its newspaper and bank and water facilities make it the best point for boomers of all classes. At noon Wednesday Pawnee Bill, who rode in from the country for carpenters, said he estimated the crowd at that point to be at least 11,000 and constantly growing.

The Work of a Storm.

A small town between Oklahoma and Purcell was visited by a heavy wind storm, accompanied by rain early Wednesday morning, and many portable houses were ruined. A woman was pinned fast under the ruins of a log house and her infant child killed.

No Use for Street Jumpers.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 26.—At the meeting of the committee of citizens Wednesday three ladies requested that before proceedings be had a prayer might be offered. This was acceded to, and the Rev. W. H. Peak, of Winfield, was honored with having made the first prayer in any public meeting held in Oklahoma. The most important resolution offered was the following:

"RESOLVED, That all persons who, in good faith and legally have taken, lots be allowed to take their relative positions under this survey."

A very warm discussion followed out the resolution was finally passed. The opponents of this movement were the "street jumpers," as they are termed, because when they found they could not get such lots as they wanted they located in the streets.

A committee started along the streets and as each "jumper" was found they politely but firmly told him to get out of the street. When a "street jumper" gets in their way at all they give the alarm by yelling, "Yahoo! yahoo!" several times, and their comrades come in swarms. The intruder is immediately surrounded and told to get off and stay off, or he would be thrown off, as the exigencies of the case may require.

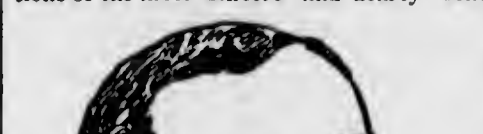

A Woman Burned to Death.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 26.—George Davy came into Guthrie and reported that his mother, a woman of 85, had perished in the prairie fire, which has been raging about five miles west of here for two days.

A GRAND "SEND OFF"

To Be Given Patrick Egan on His Departure for Chili.

NEW YORK, April 26.—If a suggestion which is now being considered by certain prominent Irishmen in this city is carried into effect, Patrick Egan will carry with him to his new home in Chili the recollections of the most sincere and hearty "send off" that has ever been given to a United States minister bound for his post of duty.

PATRICK EGAN.

It is proposed to make the day a genuine Irish holiday; to have all the Irish organizations in the city turn out, and to hire every available tug and sound steamer for an escorting procession to the outgoing vessel. The Irish men and women will be invited to assemble at the wharf in their tens of thousands and give the ex-president of the land league a parting cheer; and he will probably be escorted from his hotel to the steamer by a triumphal procession with music and flags and galore. The details as yet are in somewhat of a crude shape, but one of the promoters of the movement said that only forty-eight hours time would be required to perfect the details. Advice from Lincoln, Neb., say that Minister Egan will sail from this city on May 10, going by way of Panama, across the isthmus and down the Chilean line.

THE SIOUX COMMISSION.

Provisions Under Which It Must Work Explained at Some Length.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The act under which the Sioux commission was appointed is similar to the act passed in the first session of the Fifty-fifth congress under a similar title, and which the Indians rejected chiefly because of the unsatisfactory price and terms of payment offered them for the lands to be ceded thereunder. The points of difference between the two acts, as disclosed by comparison, are summarized as follows: The Pine Ridge reservation is to be extended east some eighteen or twenty miles, and the Rosebud reservation correspondingly reduced on the west. The Flandreau Sioux, who may elect not to take allotments on the great Sioux reservation, are to be paid $1.25 per acre in lieu of allotments, instead of fifty cents per acre, as previously provided. The quantity of land to be allotted to heads of families of the Sioux nation on their respective diminished reservation, whenever they take their lands in severalty, is double the quantity previously provided. The allotments in severalty are not to be compulsory, except as to orphans, without the consent of a majority of the male adults of the tribe. Every allottee is made a citizen of the United States and is to have the benefit of and be made subject to the laws of the state or territory within which he resides. Heads of families who desire to take allotments on the ceded lands will receive 320 acres, instead of 160, and the Poncas get double the quantity on their own reservation they would have been entitled to under the former act. Horses (manes) are to be substituted for oxen in the discretion of the secretary of the interior in the distribution of articles and things to be given to allottees, and $50 in cash is to be expended for their benefit. The permanent fund is increased from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000, and at the end of fifty years the fund is to be expended for the benefit of the Indians, or distributed among them. Religious societies must pay $1.25 per acre for any land they want, instead of fifty cents per acre. The ceded lands are to be sold to settlers at $1.25 per acre for the first three years, at seventy-five cents for the next two years, and at fifty cents for the next five years, and the government is to pay for the remainder at the rate of fifty cents per acre. The United States pays $1.25 per acre for lands reserved for school purposes, instead of fifty cents per acre, as provided in the previous act. The Red Cloud and Red Leaf bands are to be paid for ponies taken from them in 1876.

New York, April 26.—Albert M. Frey, who has held the pool championship for the past three years, died at his residence, No. 30 Irving place, at 7 a. m. He was taken ill on Saturday last with pleuro-pneumonia.

CIVIL SERVICE.

Senator Stewart, of Nevada, Says It's a Fraud.

HE BACKS UP HIS WORDS WITH POINTED ARGUMENTS.

He Also Believes in Electing the President Every Two Years, and Then Making Him Ineligible for a Second Term—His Opinion of Lengthening the President's Term of Office.

CINCINNATI, April 26.—The Times-Star publishes the following from its Washington correspondent:

"Civil service is a fraud," said Senator Stewart, of Nevada, to me, and he emphasized the remark with a loud thump on the table. "My experience is that we get better men and better work under the old plan of making appointments. The only change in the old method I would have made would be to require every one who recommended a man for appointment to put his indorsement in writing so that he could not escape responsibility for the selection if it proved to be a bad one. The clerks who stay in office year after year become lazy and insolent, whereas a man who thinks he may be removed any time is always on the alert and willing to do his best. Rotation is a natural law, and there must be rotation and change in office if the present form of government is to be preserved."

"Do you think elections are too frequent?" I asked.

"By no means," said the picturesque old senator from the Pacific slope. "I think that presidential elections occur at intervals that are much too long. Our presidents should be elected every two years, and then made ineligible for another term. You may think that because there is so much commotion every four years over the election that the same turmoil would ensue if elections were held twice as often. My belief is that it would not be so. Men would not have so much inducement for struggle, because the rewards of political work would be less. Elections would pass off quietly. There would be much less excitement, and business would scarcely feel the disturbance. The elections would be looked on as a matter of course. No one would become frantic over them."

"What do you think would be the effect of lengthening the president's term of office?"

"I think it would be disastrous, very," answered Senator Stewart. "The president has too much power now. I think we could do very well in this country without a president, and the shorter the term the better. If a man were made president for ten or twelve years he would be president for life; it would take a revolution to get him out."

"Long terms of office are not consistent with our form of government. I am tired of this whole civil service business, and I do not see how or where it has improved the country or its public service any."

CORROBORATED.

The Story That Two Peddlers Were Murdered in Russell County, Kentucky.

SOMERSET, Ky., April 26.—About a year ago John and Henry Hill were arrested for the murder of two peddlers near Jamestown, Russell county. The murder was discovered by means of pieces of flesh found scattered through the woods. A woman named Berger, who lived at Henry Hill's where the peddlers were last seen, told the awful story.

She said that the peddlers stayed there for the night; as soon as they were asleep Henry went over and got his brother John and prepared to murder the men for their money. They made her go with them and held a basin to catch the blood while they cut their throats. They carried the bodies into the cellar, and the next night took them away.

The Hills swore that the woman's story was spite work, and as the bodies could not be found they were set free.

Wednesday Marshall Ord, a boy of 10, was playing on the hillside, slipped and caught at a wild grapevine, which pulled up by the roots. Seeing a piece of coffee sack he dug further and found two human skeletons done up in a sack. The washbasin and a basket, recognized as belonging to the Hills, was near by. The hills have been arrested.

SMALLPOX IN BUFFALO.

A Polish Immigrant, Five Days in This Country, Down with the Disease.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 26.—Smallpox has again broken out in this city. This time, as last year, the disease was imported directly from a foreign country, and the individual bringing it to Buffalo passed the inspection of the quarantine officials in New York city, but a few days prior to coming down being taken sick.

A Polish family reported a case of smallpox at 559 Carroll street Wednesday. Investigation proved that Henry Toboira, a Polish immigrant, who landed in this country five days since, was afflicted with the disease. He was removed to the quarantine hospital, and the house quarantined and disinfected.

Business in the South.

BALTIMORE, April 26.—The Manufacturers' Record recently asked a number of leading southern bankers for their views upon the condition of business in their section and the prospects. Replies have been received from a large number, and without exception they tell of great improvement in business, of activity in trade and manufactures. In the last two years the south has raised over 14,000,000 bales of cotton, over 1,000,000,000 bushels of corn, nearly 100,000,000 bushels of wheat and 169,000,000 bushels of oats, the total value being over $1,600,000,000, which is far in excess of the value of the south's agricultural products in any two consecutive preceding years.

Negress Murdered in Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—There is a mystery surrounding the death of a young colored girl, whose body was found two miles from Benning, just outside the district. Her skull was crushed as though with an ax. Nobody knows who she is.

BOOMS BROKEN.

Over 20,000,000 Feet of Logs Scattered Among the Apostle Islands.

ASHLAND, Wis., April 26.—The heavy gale which swept Lake Superior Tuesday night was disastrous to the lumbermen whose booms of logs were in exposed positions along Chequamegon bay. Over 20,000,000 feet of logs are now scattered among the Apostle Islands, the booms having been broken by the fury of the storm.

Many of the logs were driven out into the lake. It is now believed that only a small percentage can be saved when the storm subsides. A rough estimate of the loss placed it over $100,000. Pike & Drake, whose boom contained 13,000,000 feet, are the heaviest sufferers. Wednesday snow accompanied the gale, but as night came on the storm abated.

Gale on Lake Erie.

ERIE, Pa., April 26.—A gale traveling forty-five miles an hour came down the lake striking this port at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Almost the darkness of night came with the storm of rain and hail that followed the terrible gusts of wind. Shipping suffered much damage. In the city and surrounding country the loss will be heavy, and a number of persons were seriously injured by falling debris.

The Des Moines River Settlers.

WATERLOO, Iowa, April 26.—The Des Moines river land troubles have assumed a new phase. When the settlers visited the lands from which they were evicted and put in the crops, proceedings were commenced against them for contempt of court. They were arrested, waived examination, and gave bonds. They then continued the work of putting in crops unmindful of the courts. Suits have now been begun against them for willful trespass, and warrants were issued Wednesday for William Spainhower, who was leader in the crop-planting movement, and for several others. Advice from Webster county say that all the recalcitrant settlers will be served in a similar manner.

Kansas Salt and Sugar.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Kansas is destined to become famous for its salt and sugar industries. It possesses a bed of purest rock salt 300 miles long, twenty-five miles wide and 400 feet thick. The gospel of protective duties on foreign salt forthwith has become the faith of Kansas. Also, about eighteen months ago the secret of economically making sugar from sorghum was finally wrested by Kansas experimenters from reluctant nature. In her own markets she can beat Louisiana, France, Germany, the East and West Indies and South America in the economical production of sugar. She can produce it for about two cents a pound.

Collision and Death.

SOMERSET, Ky., April 26.—One mile south of Glen Mary, Tenn., Wednesday afternoon through freights No. 18 and No. 13 collided on the Cincinnati Southern. Rear brakeman Taylor and Conductor Hines were killed, Engineer Rush fatally, and Conductor Carney and Engineer Harding slightly injured. Hines lived at Fremont, O. The cause of the accident was a forgetfulness of orders by Conductor Carney, of No. 13.

Rare Folio of Shakespeare at Auction.

NEW YORK, April 26.—At the sale of the library and prints of Robert Lennox Kennedy at auction Wednesday night the first folio of Shakespeare's comedies, histories and tragedies brought $1,400. A commission dealer was the purchaser. There are only two other copies of the rare folio in existence. John Hoey owns one, the Astor family the other. It was printed in 1623.

Champion Roller Skaters.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., April 26.—Robbie Wood, of New York, and Young McDowell, of Philadelphia, skated a five-mile race here Wednesday night on roller skates for the championship of the United States and a purse of $300. The race was hotly contested. McDowell won in 10:45:2-5. Both men made several beautiful bursts of speed, and the finish was a desperate one.

That Case of Yellow Fever.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Surgeon General J. B. Hamilton states, regarding the case of yellow fever, reported at Sanford, Fla.: "There will be no attempt at suppression of the facts; that was the principal cause of the panic last year. I should not be surprised at a number of cases. Those cities which escaped last year are more dangerous, as efforts to disinfect them were not so thoroughly made as in those places that were visited. Publication of every fact is the best course to pursue." Dr. Hamilton left Washington for Jacksonville Wednesday night.

A Blow at the Newspapers.

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 26.—The capital punishment bill which passed the legislature in its last hours, is a peculiar one. Under its provisions the prisoner is to see no one but his family, his lawyers and his spiritual advisers. He is to be executed before sunrise and may invite three persons to be present. The sheriff invites six persons beside the surgeon. The most unique feature of the law, however, is the provision which makes it a misdemeanor for any newspaper to print anything more about the matter than the announcement.

Hawes' Murder Trial.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 26.—The Hawes' murder trial is now fully on, and some important testimony has been given. The first indictment, charging him with killing his little May, is the one upon which the state will try to make the first conviction. Two physicians testified that the child's body did not show all the signs of a drowned person when it was taken from the lake. Several witnesses testified that Hawes had said he was going to put his children in a convent.

Bones of a Mastodon Unearthed.

URBANA, O., April 26.—Workmen digging at Mutual discovered the bones of a mastodon. A tusk, nearly eight feet long and nine inches across the base, was first found; also a tooth eight inches across, with small pieces attached. The jaw weighed twenty pounds.

Murdered for Not Aiding in a Robbery.

SHREVEPORT, La., April 26.—Tuesday night John Fletcher, of Marshall, Tex., was murdered by Walter Douglass, who wanted him to join a gang to rob R. E. Travis. Fletcher refused to join in the deed. All the gang are in jail charged with murder.

FRIDAY, APRIL 26, 1889.

The Court of Appeals Clerkship is the best office in the State. It pays about $12,000 a year, and the next contest over it will be the warmest ever waged. The field will be full of contestants.

Another rumor comes from Washington City that Goodloe is booked for Collector of this district, but the Louisville Commercial's correspondent says "it is probably just like the hundred which have preceded it." "Time will tell."

At Shelbyville, this State, the colored voters outnumber the whites thirty-one, and are the controlling element in all elections. The total property valuation of the town is $1,126,702, of which all is owned by the whites with the exception of $26,130.

The Democrats of Clark County have re-nominated Hon. Jas. P. Gay for the Legislature. Hon. Jo C. S. Blackburn was endorsed for re-election to the U. S. Senate. Delegates to the State Convention were instructed to vote for Hon. S. G. Sharp for State Treasurer.

FIRST CONTROLLER DURHAM let Attorney General Miller and the other Republicans at Washington know he wasn't to be bossed by them, and, of course, he had to walk the plank. He will resume his practice of law at Danville. Durham's "all right." As the Lexington Transcript says, "when Milton J. Durham stepped out of the service, the government lost an honest, trustworthy and conscientious servant."

The Louisville Times called on Auditor Hewitt to sue some of the papers that were talking about him. The day following the Times' demand, the Auditor telegraphed he would sue. The Times suggested that Louisville was just the place to bring the suits. The Auditor thought so too, and has filed his actions there, notwithstanding the fact that neither of the defendant papers are published at Louisville. A little singular all this, and the Times has started out already to argue the cases through its editorial columns. The Auditor has an able advocate.

Some applicant for a postoffice out in Indiana wrote to Colonel W. W. Dudley a few days since to secure his influence. The "hoodler" is reported to have replied: "I am sorry to say that I will be unable to render you any assistance whatever with the President. He has lost his backbone, and is too cowardly to be seen consulting with me, for the simple reason that the copperheads and rebels of Indiana have tramped up a lot of charges against me. He seems entirely oblivious to the fact that it was through my efforts that Indiana was saved to him."

Judging from this language the Republicans are in danger of losing one of their most efficient workers. The Democrats got Dudley "in the soup" last fall, and his own party are keeping him there.

The Courier-Journal says: "Postmaster General Wanamaker has the reputation of being a man able at all times to grasp the main chance. A branch store of his Philadelphia house is now in operation at Washington, and the rush of postoffice clerks and others to get ready-made clothing with the Postmaster General trade mark on the button is said to be appalling to the other Washington merchants."

In addition to this the New York Times charges that Wanamaker is using his position to get the little fourth-class postmasters at the country stores throughout the country to act as agents for his big Philadelphia mercantile establishment. Such a thing as that should not be surprising in a man who raised $400,000 to aid in boosting his party into power.

NO APPOINTMENT President Harrison has made has caused such unfavorable comment as that of Robert P. Porter, of New York, to be Superintendent of the next Census. The Cleveland Plain Dealer says: "He is denounced as an unscrupulous juggler with figures, a free trader who became a protectionist for profit, an employee of the Census Bureau who sold the figures to a partisan paper. The census statistics under his superintendence are discredited in advance, the only thing in which any confidence can be placed—if that can be—being the statistics of population. Several papers that have had opportunities to know Porter and his work well do not hesitate to say it is the most indecent appointment the President has yet made."

The Philadelphia Record asserts that "Porter is not fit for the position." And but few Republican papers speak well of the appointment and these would commend most anything the President might do.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to clean the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50 cent and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

School Exposition.

The National Normal Exponent, a magazine devoted to the cause of education, says: "Prof. L. W. Galbraith, Superintendent Public Schools, Mason County, Ky., is initiating a splendid work for the schools, teachers and patrons of education in his county. He is directing work throughout the schools preparatory to a School Exposition at the County Institute next summer. Explicit directions as to the nature of the work, the conditions of its preparation, the mounting of the work and its preservation have been supplied the teachers, so that all the schools are working synchronously and in unified action."

"Prof. Galbraith is immensely practical, and manages these efforts in a judicious and patient spirit which recognizes that it must all be a gradual and progressive growth. We promise for him a success far beyond his highest expectations, and that all the teachers, pupils and patrons of his schools, will in due time have great reason to congratulate themselves because of the improvement in scholarship, regularity of attendance and enthusiasm throughout all the ramifications of the school work in Mason County, by reason of the carrying out of the Exposition idea. We have never known this work to be undertaken in any county, and we have known of it in many, where it did not produce the most splendid results, and inaugurate a quiet, thoroughgoing revolution for the better in every school that came under its influence."

This school exposition will take place during the next institute and will be the first ever held in Mason County. The written work of the schools the past session is being received now and will be on exhibition.

SHANNON.

Anderson & Trigg are always on time and the new firm has a lively spring paragonage. The boys don't need any thing now but a wife apiece.

After a two month's absence of visitation in Lexington, Carlisle and Millerburg Mrs. A. R. Dallas is again the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. D. Watson, for a brief sojourn.

Several of our leading farmers finished breaking their sod lands with the Kalamazoo and are now plowing and sowing with its deep, uniform plowing and light draft.

The Mayslick Baptist Church will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of its organization next fall. Rev. Z. T. Cody has the old records and is preparing a history of the church. It will be a notable occasion and is looked forward to with much interest.

The four-gable cottage on "Gault Mount," I. N. Watson's, has just donned a new spring suit of old gold with India red trimmings and is a thing of beauty—a picture of silver and apples of gold. The knights of the brush who wrought this pretty change are Dan B. Shafer, assisted by Davis & Cobb, all of the "Hill City." The garden and lawn are enclosed with wire and picket fence, the work of Jones & Mullikin, assisted by the "little giant" machine-fence.

THE GERMANS

Will Attempt to Impress It on the Mind of King Humbert

THAT THEIR ARMY IS SECOND TO NONE IN EUROPE.

Italians Greatly Dissatisfied With the Triple Alliance—The Police of Naples Succeeded in Suppressing an Outbreak—Germany to Give the Jews a Rest—Boulangier Interviewed—Notes.

LONDON, April 26.—The visit of King Humbert to Berlin will naturally be made the occasion of a most impressive military display, in order that the Italian visitors may be made to understand the superiority of the German army to any continental force.

Not Satisfied.

There is much dissatisfaction in the peninsula at the triple alliance, especially in the southern part. The police lately succeeded in preventing an attempted outbreak at Naples. The journals were forbidden to mention it, but in spite of all denials it threatened at one time to be a serious affair, nor is there any proof that it was instigated by priests, as is generally alleged in such cases. The suffering among the agricultural classes is great, and there does not seem to be any prospect of the improvement of trade.

The Pope Will Not Grieve.

Though Signor Crispi promised that no papal nuncio will be received at Berlin, as a reward for the adherence of Italy, it is not thought there will be much grief at the Vatican for what is more of a discourtesy than a substantial deprivation.

Greatly Exaggerated.

It is officially stated that the importance of the Socialistic demonstrations in different parts of Germany has been greatly exaggerated. The government press say that it has been thought best to allow such people more latitude in speech and print than has been given to them of late, trusting to the good sense of reputable citizens to take their frothy words at their value, and believing that the agitators will subside into their normal nothing when the complaint of persecution is over.

The Hebrews in Germany.

LONDON, April 26.—Advice from Berlin to a Jewish financier here state that it is very doubtful that Chaplain Stoecker's noticeable silence of late is due to his illness as reported. It is intimated that his absence from the pulpit is owing to a private admonition that the persecution of Hebrews in Germany is to cease, for a while at least. The reverend Jew-baiter took the hint in very bad humor, but there is probably nothing more serious the matter with him than a fit of the sulks at his enforced suspension from his favorite pastime.

The Kaiser must have money for his proposed schemes—a good deal of it; he must go to Semitic money lenders for a great portion of it, and this is held to explain the orders given to the Rev. Dr. Stoecker. What, with colonial projects and naval increase, the emperor cannot afford to quarrel with so useful and so clannish a class of subjects.

The Self-Exiled French General.

LONDON, April 26.—In an interview at Hotel Bristol, Gen. Boulanger said that he had no thought of issuing a manifesto at present to his followers in France. It is his intention to remain quietly in London for the present. Scores of bouquets of flowers have been sent him from Paris from his admirers, and already the general has received numerous invitations to dinner parties and receptions in London from his would-be lionizers.

Receptions Arranged for Captain Murrell and the Missouri's Crew.

BALTIMORE, April 26.—The business men of Baltimore are preparing to give Capt. Murrell, of the steamer Missouri, a rousing reception next Saturday, in recognition of his rescue of the passengers of the Danmark. The two city ice boats will be used to convey those who desire to participate down the bay to meet the Missouri on Saturday morning. A reception will be tendered Capt. Murrell and his officers on Saturday afternoon aboard the Missouri.

Monday a public reception will be held at the Corn and Flour Exchange, during which Capt. Murrell and each of his officers and crew will be presented with a merit medal, and the Danish minister will come over from Washington and hand to Capt. Murrell a decoration from the king of Denmark. Wednesday night a banquet will be tendered to the officers of the Missouri.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

The Indianapolis Board of Control, Police and Fire Department Bills.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 26.—The supreme court handed down three opinions, Wednesday afternoon, one affirming the decision of the court below, in declaring unconstitutional the board of control bill passed by the last legislature. The bill had sole reference to Indianapolis, and places the various departments under one control. The principal point lay in the allegation that it deprived the people of local self-government. The other decision upset the police and fire board bills of this city and Evansville, for the same reason. The result was anticipated in Indianapolis, as the police authorities have refused to surrender to the new boards, but in Evansville it will restore the old condition of things. Judge Mitchell has filed dissenting opinions.
